The number of Families being 41,965, and the Population 202,426, there are 4 82-100 persons to each family.

The Births being 6,868, and the number of Marriages 1,919, there are 3 57-100 Births to each Marriage.

In 1791, the Roman Catholics in Glasgow were few in number; Mass was then celebrated clandestinely in a dwelling-house in a close at the bottom of the Saltmarket. The Catholic Chapel in Clyde Street, built in 1815, is a great ornament to the City. The Chapel in Gorbals is commodious.

ROYAL INFIRMARY.

From the opening of the Royal Infirmary in 1795 to 1831, both inclusive, 50,452 patients have been admitted. Fever cases, 14,089. The whole dismissions and deaths, 50,108. Remaining on 1st January, 1832, 344. In the first half of the above period, the whole admissions were 13,107. Fevers, 1,347, a little above one-tenth. In the second half of the above period, the whole admissions were, 37,345. Fevers, 12,742, nearly one-third. Income of the Infirmary during the years referred to, £159,006, 19s. 8½d. Expenditure, £142,989, 19s. 5½d. Stock, £16,017, 0s. 3d.

NUMBER OF PERSONS LICENSED TO RETAIL SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS.

In 1820, there were 919; in 1823, 1,147; in 1827, 1,294; in 1830, 1,393. It should be observed, that of those, a considerable number are Landlords, who take out certificates in their own name for Shops, Houses, &c. which are unlet at the time, limited by the Act for making application; And this, in order to the premises being licensed, if a deserving tenant should occur in that line of business.

The number of persons licensed to retail Spirituous Liquors in the 10 Parishes of the City being 1,393, and the number of families 19,467, gives one licensed person, or public-house, to 13 97-100 families. If the number of persons who retail spirituous liquors, without being able to obtain a license, were taken into account on the one hand, and the number of temperate families who never use a public-house on the other, it may be said, that in this City, there is, at least, one place where Spirits are retailed for every twelve families!!! At the Licence Court, in April, 1832, the Magistrates refused to renew the licences of persons who had been convicted of keeping disorderly houses. They also refused all applications for new licenses.

SUPPLY OF COALS IN GLASGOW.

In 1830, 261,049 Tons of Coals were brought into Glasgow, of which 124,000 tons were exported. On an average of 28 years, ending in 1830, each person in London consumed one chaldron and twelve hundred parts, the chaldron containing 27 cwt. In 1830, each person in Glasgow consumed one London chaldron and fifty nine hundred parts. On 2d March, 1829, the first quality of Newcastle coal was sold in London at 40s. 9d. per chaldron, and the second at 32s. 6d. In Glasgow, during the same year, a waggon of 24 cwt. was sold at 9s. The Government duty of 6s. per chaldron on Newcastle Coals carried coast-ways has just been taken of.

MAIL AND STAGE COACHES.

The first Mail Coach from London to Glasgow, arrived on 7th July, 1788. In 1832, there are 61 Stage Coaches which depart from, and arrive in, Glasgow, every lawful day, with the following exceptions; viz., 2 coaches depart and return twice every day, 3 do. three times a-day, 3 do. three times a-week, 4 do. four times a-week, the Royal Mails every day. These Coaches are drawn by 183 horses, 671 are used in the journeys, and there is accommodation for 832 passengers. In 1788, the Mail took 63 hours from London to Glasgow. In 1832, it takes only 44 hours to accomplish a journey of 403 miles, and there is now a prospect of its arriving in 41 or 41½ hours. The unprecedented expedition in bringing the news of the second reading of the Reform in Parliament Bill in the House of Peers, to Glasgow, is worthy of record; it shows what can be done in the way of travelling. Their Lordships divided at twenty-five minutes to seven o'clock, on the morning of Saturday the 14th of April, 1832, when it appeared that there were, contents, 184; non-contents, 175; majority for the Bill, 9. Mr. Young, the editor of the Sun newspaper (Old Sun), left the Strand at 20 minutes to 8 o'clock, and arrived in Miller Street, Glasgow, on Sunday evening, at half-past seven o'clock, at the house of his agent, Mr. Atkinson, in a post chaise and four, with copies of his paper, containing no less than twenty-two and a half columns of the debate, little more than an hour being occupied in setting up the types and correcting and printing the paper. The journey, including all stoppages, was accomplished in thirty-five hours and fifty minutes. When it is considered that horses for the Mail are always in readiness, that in Expresses delays necessarily occur, and that in this instance newspapers were given out at every town, the feat is the more remarkable.

NUMBER OF STEAM BOATS ON THE CLYDE.

On the 1st of January, 1812, there were no Steam Boats in Europe. In the latter end of that month, Henry Bell launched the Comet at Glasgow. In 1832, there are 59 Steam Boats on the Clyde at Glasgow, a number of them above 200 ton burthen. The Manchester belonging to Messrs. James Martin, and James and George Burns and Co. is in the Liverpool trade. She is 387 tons burthen, and is propelled by 2 engines of 100 horse power each.

STEAM ENGINES, COTTON MILLS, AND POWER LOOMS.

The first Steam Engine for Spinning Cotton in Glasgow was erected in 1792. In 1832 there 176 Engines=2,979 horse power, average power 20 664-1000, and 44 Cotton Mills, in which there are 640,188 mule and throstle spindles. In these mills there are 1,344 spinners, exclusive of all other workers. In 49 of the Cotton and Weaving Mills, in Glasgow, or belonging to it, there were, in April, 1832, 10,897, workers, viz. from 9 to 10 years old, 252: 10 to 12, 921: 12 to 14, 1,154: 14 to 16, 1,200: 16 to 18, 1,308: 18 to 21, 1,606: 21 and upwards, 4,456. As this information is required for an immediate political purpose, time has not been given for ascertaining the details in all the mills. It is, however, satisfactory to know, that the unenumerated Mills are similar to those enumerated, and that the information, herein contained, will be found sufficient for forming an average of ages and wages. There are no children under nine years of age employed in any Mill or public work belonging to Glasgow manufacturers.

RENTAL OF GLASGOW, AND HOUSE DUTY.

All double, treble, and other letters and packets whatever (except by the penny post) pay in proportion to the respective rates of single letters; but no letter or packet to and from places within the Kingdom of Great Britain, together with the contents thereof, shall be charged more than as a treble letter, unless the same shall weigh an ounce, when it is to be rated as four single letters, and so in proportion for every quarter of an ounce above that weight, reckoning each quarter as a single letter.

REGULATIONS.

The Sergeant Major and two Constables, with twelve Officers, attend at the Office, previous to the Watchmen, being sent to their Stations. These Officers thereafter patrol the Streets, observe if the Watchmen are doing their duty, apprehend vagrants, suspicious and disorderly persons, and report lamps not burning, in order that they may be immediately lighted by a lamp-lighter, who remains in the Guard-House during the night, for that purpose. After 12 o'clock, they commence taking up the tickets from the Watchmen, that they received when going to their Stations, which they deliver to the Constable, on duty, at 2 o'clock; they again visit the Watchmen, and after 3 o'clock deliver them check-tickets, which they return to the Constable in the morning, on arriving from their Stations. The other twenty-four Officers that were in bed all night, attend in the morning, at 6 o'clock, from the 1st of March till the 1st of November, and at 7 o'clock, from the 1st of November till the 1st of March, to patrol the Streets, till 9 o'clock, inspecting their Wards, and observing that the Pavements are properly cleaned. A regular report of the whole is entered in a book, by the Constable of the night, for the inspection of the Master of Police, in the morning, and the Commissioners at the Weekly Board; as also a report of all delinquents brought before the Sitting Magistrate at 10 o'clock, forenoon.

A Constable and twenty-four Officers, attend at the Office, every morning at 10 o'clock. Four of these Officers remain in charge of the Office, and the other twenty are stationed in different districts of the city, and continue on their respective Stations, until relieved by the night Watchmen.

The Watchmen go to their Stations at 9 o'clock at night, during the whole year, and continue till 5 in the morning, in the months of May, June, July, and August; till 6, in the months of March, April, September and October; and till 7, in the months of November, December, January, and February. The whole draw up in line in the centre of the street, opposite their respective stations, immediately before calling the hour and half-hour, in order to ascertain, at one glance, that every man is at his post.

The funds for defraying the expense are raised part from the town, and from the yearly rent of subjects, rented or valued at £4 and under £6, sterling, yearly, 4d. per pound, sterling—At £6, and under, £10, 6d. per pound.—£10, and under £15, 9d. per pound.—£15, and upwards, 1s. per pound.

Form of Proceeding in the Recovery of Small Debts.

Debts may be recovered, in a summary form, before the Justice of Peace Courts, to the extent of £5; and before the Sheriff Courts, to the extent of £8, 6s. 8d.

The first step is to set forth in a complaint or libel, agreeably to a prescribed form [the Clerks of Court will provide all necessary forms,] the origin of the debt, or ground of action, and to cause the same, with a copy of the account, if any, to be served on the defender.

A warrant will, at same time, be obtained to cite witnesses, and, when the case is before the Sheriff, to use arrestments.

The parties may appear either by themselves, or by members of their families, or others whom the Court may authorise ; but in no case by persons practising the profession of the law.

If the defender fail to appear, after being cited personally, he will be held as confessed, and judgment will be given against him.

If the defender has not been cited personally, he will receive a second citation ; after which, whether given personally or not, he will be held confessed, as above.

But when decree is given in absence against the defender, he may, before the expiry of the charge, apply for a rehearing on consigning the sums decerned for.

If decree in absence be given against the pursuer, he may, within one month, obtain a rehearing on consigning of 2s. 6d. if the case be before the Justices ; and the expenses decerned for, if the case be before the Sheriff.

The case will be adjourned upon the pursuer or defender offering a suitable excuse, or if any witnesses be absent.

If decree be given against the defender in his personal presence, diligence may proceed against him by arrestment, poinding and sale, and imprisonment ; after six free days if the case be before the Sheriff, and at the end of ten days if before the Justices.

If decree be given against the defender in his absence, poinding, and sale, and imprisonment can only follow after a charge of six days if before the Sheriff, and ten days if before the Justices.

The defender, on showing cause, may be allowed to pay the sums decerned for by instalments.

The decrees of the Sheriff may be executed in any county on the same being indorsed by the Clerk of such county.

Any arrestments used in cases before the Sheriff must be used within sixty days after the warrant is obtained, and renewed every three months ; and such arrestments may be loosed on offering sufficient caution, or on showing evidence of absolutor or payment, or on consigning the sums demanded, if before decree.

The above forms will apply to any action of forthcoming whatever before the Sheriff or Justices, for making effectual arrestments ; but in such actions both the defender and arrestee must be cited to appear in Court on the same day.

Decrees, pronounced in this summary form by the Sheriff, will only be reviewable by the next Circuit Court of Justiciary, or, if there be no Circuit Court, by the High Court of Justiciary at Edinburgh, on the ground of corruption, or malice, or oppression, on the part of the Judge.

Such decrees, when pronounced by the Justices, will only be reviewable by a reduction before the Court of Session on the ground of malice and oppression on the part of the Justices ; and such reduction will only be competent for one year, and on finding caution for costs.

No person will be exempted from the jurisdiction of Justices or Sheriffs in such cases by reason of privilege as a member of the College of Justice.

Soldiers on the recruiting service and not lodged in the Barracks are billeted on the inhabitants in regular rotation, with the following exceptions, viz. Parish Ministers and Schoolmasters, Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons, Faculty of Procurators, Widows and unmarried Ladies not in business, and who do not keep lodgers, and paupers; and no inhabitant to have Soldiers billeted on them a second time until the whole are gone over.

When it is inconvenient to furnish Soldiers with a bed, it has been usual in lieu thereof to pay 3s. a week for two men, and 2s. to sergeants, payable weekly at the option of the Inhabitant. Government allows a return of 1d. each day to each Soldier. The Billet master attends from 11 to 3 o'clock on the 4th of each month, (when it does not fall on Sunday,) and the two following days, to pay the Government allowance.

A case similar to the above, was tried in the Justice of Peace court, when a sergeant made a charge of 3s. per week, for one man, for a bed, which the inhabitant resisted as being too much; the Justices adhering to a decision of the Magistrates in December, 1822, decided, that 2s. per week was the proper sum to be paid to one man in lieu of a bed.—Glasgow Chronicle, 17th June, 1824.

This Table is calculated for the Broomielaw, on the supposition that the tides are only influenced by the action of the sun and moon. It will, therefore be necessary when using it, to remember, that, in rivers like the Clyde, the regularity of the tides is much interrupted by heavy rains, as well as by high winds, the former producing what are called floods or freshes, the latter altering both the height of the tide, and the time of high water.

Heavy rains affect the hour of full tide in a very inconsiderable degree, but a strong gale from the north west, north, or north east, not only prevents the tide from rising so high as usual, but causes high water to happen sometimes above half an hour earlier than what is stated in the table, while, on the other hand, if the gale be from the south east, south, or south west, the tide will be as much later, and probably from 12 to 18 inches higher than the average.

The preceding Table will be applicable to the following Places, if, to the time of High Water at Glasgow, the hours and minutes, opposite to the given place, be added or subtracted as directed.

This Society is so constituted as to present the means of effecting Assurances on Lives with the greatest possible advantage to the public.

Three-fourths of the present profits, and eventually the whole profits, will be divided among the Policy-holders.

Every person Assured to the extent of £500 for the whole term of life, will, after four years, be entitled to participate in the profits, and to attend and vote at all general meetings, the Members of which have absolute control over the affairs of the Society.

No claim can be litigated or disputed without the sanction of a general meeting of Policy-holders, specially convened on the occasion.

The Directors having availed themselves of all the important information relative to the decrements of human life, which has recently been communicated to the public, have been enabled to construct a set of Tables, in which the rates of Assurance are considerably lower than those of any other Office in which the Assured participate in the profits.

They have also been enabled, from the extent and variety of the computations, to adapt the mode of payment in each case to the accommodation of the party Assured. An instance of such accommodation may be seen in the annexed extract from the increasing rates of Premium, which have been calculated expressly for the use of this Institution.

Females, and others who are unable to attend personally at the Office, may appear before one of the Medical Officers, in town or country; and proposals may be completed without delay, where the documents relative to the health of the parties are satisfactory.

Prospectuses and every requisite information may be obtained by application to the agent.

ALTERNATIVE.

One-third of the Premium may be left unpaid, to be deducted from the sum assured, on a scale equal to interest at 4 per cent.

Thus, at the age of 30, 20 Guineas a year, will insure £1500 in the first instance, to be reduced at £10, 18s. 5d. if the Assured die within the first year; by £59, 2s. 11d. if he die within the fifth year; and so on, according to a scale endorsed on the Policy.

Ascending Scale of Premiums.

| Age. | First 7 Years. | Next 7 Years. | Every Year after. |
|------|----------------|---------------|-------------------|
| 20 | 1 1 4 | 1 6 2 | 2 4 7 |
| 30 | 1 8 7 | 1 15 1 | 3 0 11 |
| 40 | 1 18 3 | 2 7 0 | 4 9 8 |
| 50 | 2 11 11 | 4 0 11 | 7 0 3 |

A man at 30,—instead of £2, 2s. for every year of life, according to the Even Table, by adopting the Ascending Scale—will pay £1, 8s. 7d. per annum for the first seven years, £1, 15s. 1d. per annum for a further seven years, and £3, 0s. 11d. for every year of life after.

This scale ought to supersede all others in cases of Annuity, or Leases for lives, in which very low rates for so long a period as 14 years, will be found highly advantageous.

INSURANCES ON THE LIVES OF OTHERS.

Parties having a fixed or variable interest in the lives of others, may have a general admission of interest on the Policy.

Contingent interests,—as a father insuring a child during minority, or a husband his wife,—will be admitted, the insurance being confined to the particular interest detailed in the proposal.

VOYAGES AND FOREIGN RESIDENCES.

Persons voyaging or residing abroad, Masters, Supercargoes, and others, insured for the whole of life or for a specific voyage.

NAVAL AND MILITARY SERVICE.

Officers insured against all risks, for an even premium, or enrolled for a future period, on payment of an annual fee.

PREGNANCY, DELICATE HEALTH, AND OLD AGE.

Females need not appear; the rates for diseases are moderate, and Policies are granted to persons of advanced age.

Insurances may be effected without delay, and full particulars obtained from
